

Auction 87

To take place on 13 April 2019

Please post bids to Peter McGowan, Nethergreen House, 9 The Green, Ruddington, Notts NG11 6DY
Or email: peter.mcgowan2@ntlworld.com

The deadline is Tuesday, 9 April 2019. Late bids cannot be recorded.

Ensure you include your current address and contact details. If you are bidding by email, please make sure you have received his confirmation of receipt. Successful bidders living outside the UK will be asked to pay for their lots before despatch. If two bids of the same amount are received for a lot, then the bid received first will take precedence, so early bidding is desirable. All lots now carry reserves, either at a default value of 75% of the estimate or at an undisclosed figure set by the seller. No bid will be accepted below the reserve. Take into account that some of our estimated prices appear rather too modest, and may be well overbid. We don't claim that these estimates are wholly consistent, so make allowance for this.

Remember that revised auction rules, issued last year, now apply.

NB: See the members' page of our website for images of this material.

Items unsold in our auctions eventually get added to the Web Offer pages that can be found at www.bookplatesociety.org/WebOffer2.htm where hundreds of exlibris owned by members are available for direct sale at fixed prices.

REPORT ON AUCTION 86 - HELD ON 8 DECEMBER 2018

At the head of the field was the medium-sized version of Queen Victoria's Windsor Castle Library plate - it sold for £155 (the estimate of £65 being too conservative). Haldane Macfall's large pictorial of a mounted knight at Agincourt ran to £75 (est. £30), ten pictorials by Edith Anne Greene (1856-1912) achieved £70 (est. £40), and a ship and castle for William McMillan in Jessie M King's unique style fetched £65 (est. £55). Henry Duke of Kent's fine 1713 Jacobean, with another ducal item, went expensively for £60 (est. £28). Sherborn's 1905 armorial, accompanied by photocopies of letters relating to its commissioning by leading Irish collector William Chamney of co. Wicklow, made an interesting offering which, together with the owner's plate by Graham Johnston, sold for £50 (est. £22). Ranking as a small piece of fine art, John Farleigh's shelves, stylised press, well, owl, books etc engraved on wood in 1933 for master printer William Maxwell (1873-1957) was bid up to £48 (est. £25). Another 58 lots sold in the range £20-£42 for an aggregate hammer price of £1,578 (aggregate est. £1,135). This group included the original lozenge armorial copper plate engraved by GT Friend for Manuela Koch de Gooreynd, sold to Allpress in Auction #64, 2011 for £30 and now changing hands for the same sum. Another unusual item was GH McCall's huge bookplate for The Bishopsgate Institute in Lot 179. Selling in the range £10-£19 were another 70 lots at a total of £903 (aggregate est. £1,010). Bargain prices of £3-£9 were obtained for 23 lots totalling £175 (est. £250) and 27 lots (est. £392) did not find buyers. These figures include some post-auction sales. Best buy? – perhaps the armorial for Field Marshal Haig (Lot 13) at £8.
